1285/6. Forest Pleas. Cannock. ... on the Thursday before Easter 4 Edward I [1276] a certain buck was driven from the park of Brewode and followed by a greyhound which caught it in the fields of Coven within the forest and one Hugh de Pendeford came up who is now dead and took the greyhound away and retained it without warrant. And John de Pendeford who was at that time a Verderer of the Forest came up and caused the buck to be skinned and carried away to his house at Pendeford and shortly afterwards he sold all his lands and other goods he had within the county and went beyond sea and has never returned ...
